What Republicans Say of Their Opponents.

THE LATEST INCIDENT

SENATOR CARMACK AND HIS IN-TERVIEW ON TRUSTS.

May Be Trouble Over Divided Authority as to the Conduct of the Congressional Campaign.

Republican politicians interested in the congressional campaign are inclined to speak jeeringly of their friends, the enemy, in one respect. They call attention to the multiplicity of "issues", and superabundance of managers in the democratic ranks and think that some benefit will accrue to the republicans thereby. The latest incident commented upon was the return of Senator Carmack to the city and his interview. Senator Carmack had been away since Congress adjourned, and the democratic managers had been plugging away on the trust issue. The President had made a night march on them in his Pittsburg speech on trusts, and they were trying to catch up and get on the firing line again.

In the meantime the Philippine "issue had been lost to sight. Senator Carmack got to town. "This will never do," he says, in effect; "where's the Philippine is-sue? Trot it out." So he gave out an interview designed to arouse interest in that subject and declared that it would still be to the fore as a campaign issue.

Then Senator Dubois stirred up the trusts again and Chairman Griggs of the demo cratic campaign committee took a few shots at the question, being followed by Representative Newlands and other demo-crats. Meanwhile, ex-Senator Gorman was stacking up ammunition against the beef trust and Senator Patterson and Senator Rawlins are understood to be brushing up more Philippine issues.

Mr. Ben Cable is in charge of the western headquarters, located in Chicago, and some of his friends supposed he would have absolute control of the campaign in that sec-But Chairman Griggs has let it be known that he is the chairman of the committee, and he will have a few words to say from time to time about the man-agement of the western proposition.

Mr. Griggs is going west in a few days and will look over the situation in Chicago, Europe to fortify his strength against the coming warfare on the octopi and the im-perialists. Mr. Griggs will go all over the west and will make a personal and searching investigation of the political situation in all the states beyond the Mississippi.

There is no question that the democratic managers are taking a great deal of interest in the President's attitude toward trusts, and it is furnishing them a subject of active work. Their operations for the present seem to be confined to attempts to discredit the President's sincerity and his ability to secure the following of his party in Con-

The democratic committee has been exceedingly active in getting into the columns of the press, while the republican committee has not thus far stuck a type. Chicago Freight Handlers Return to Work.

ACCEPT FORMER OFFER

CURRAN CHARGES UNION OF-FICIAL WITH TREACHERY.

Heard Him Advising Railway Official to Hold Out Against the Strikers.

CHICAGO, July 16.-The Association of Railway General Managers, embracing every road which enters Chicago, have issued the following signed statement:

"All of our old men, not before on hand for work, reported at the freight houses at noon today, and were put to work. No conference was held with any committee or otherwise since Tuesday, and no agreement was made with the union or with any committee. The men s'mply reported for work, and they doubtless expect and will receive the pay offered July 1, and which the railroad companies have been willing all along

After ten days of strife the Chicago freight handlers' strike terminated today in an unqualified victory for the railroads. A meeting of the strikers, presided over by President Curran, resulted in an almost unanimous vote to return to work, leaving the wage scale and other questions for set-tlement between the men and their respec-

Rush for Their Old Places.

At the conclusion of the meeting the strikers went by hundreds to the warehouses to apply for their old positions, and the teamsters who have remained out in sympathy again took up their reins. By noon immense quantities of freight, which had been held back for days, were being rushed to the rallroads, or taken from warehouses and cars. Where stagnation had ruled commercial activity again reigned. Chicago merchants expressed unbounded relief at the termination of hostilities, but they were scarce y less happy than the men themselves, although the strike is estimated to have cost them $10,000,000, to say nothing of trade that has been permanently lest to them.

The little hall where the meeting of the strikers took place was jammed to suffoca-tion, and thousands were unable to obtain entrance. It was a brief meeting, only long enough for an angry speech by Curran, and the vote which followed.

Curran Charges Treachery.

"Men." said Curran, "we came out like in our camp. Yesterday when I was about to use the telephone the wire got crossed, and I heard one of the members of our executive committee talking with a railroad manager. He was couraging the manager to hold out, for he old him that the strike was almost broken That is a sample of the faith that has been kept with me. The officials of the Truck Drivers' Union have not kept faith, either, and it seems useless to continue the fight any longer. Shall we go back and ask for

In this simple form the matter was put to a vote, and almost immediately a great chorus of ayes had brought to a peaceful end one of Chicago's most serious and threatening labor situations. It is believed the roads generally will allow the truckers 17 cents an hour and minor concessions granted by the proposition of July 1 Terms of the New Agreement.

The proposition accepted by the men was in the day, although the proposition in its New proper form was not placed before the

The railroad managers, when told of the vote to return to work, said that wherever possible the old men would be taken back. A small portion of the new men, however, will be retained for a time at least. Nowhere was the news of the settlement received with more pleasure than at the warehouses where thousands of men gathered from other points of the various roads to take the places of the strikers were longing to return to their homes. They had been well fed and given good sleeping quarters, but the big majority of them, being accustomed to the comfort of their nomes, were tired of "being herded." Mr. Curran, in the course of his address to the men, said: "I am going to organize the freight handlers all over the country, and when we decide to fight again it will not be a struggle between the freight handlers in Chi-cago and the railroads, but between the railroads and the freight handlers all over the country.

CELEBRATING WAYNE'S VICTORY Public Park at Stony Point Dedicated

STONY POINT, N. Y., July 16.-The capture of British fortifications here by Gen. Anthony Wayne in the American revolution was celebrated today, the one hundred and twenty-third anniversary of the event, by the dedication of a public park at the scene of the conflict. The site, which overlooks the Hudson river, is an ideal one. For years the American Scenic and Historical Society has been engaged in making improvements, and the reservation today presents a beautiful appearance.
Through the action of the legislature the hill where the battle was fought has been converted into a state reservation, and hereafter it will be taken care of by the state. Pleasant weather favored the thousands who assembled here today to participate in and carry out the program of

ING NAVAL MANEUVERS.

Congressmen to Be Guests of Secretary Moody on the Dolphin-Facilities for the Press.

Rear Admiral Higginson has sailed from New York with the battle ships Kearsarge, Alabama and Massachusetts for the eastern end of Long Island, where active work in evolutions, drills and target practice will take place in the neighborhood of coming maneuvers next month. The Olympia, from which ship the admiral transferred his flag to the Kearsafge, will be docked at the New York yard to undergo additional repairs. When they are completed she will join the squadron at sea. Secretary Moody has invited Postmaster General Payne, Representative Cannon of Illinois and a number of the members of the naval committees of Congress to accompany him on a cruise aboard the Dol-phin. The party will be gone from August 8 to August 16. The Dolphin will visit the Naval War College at Newport and also will witness some of the evolutions of Admiral Higginson's squadron.

The Torpedo Flotilla. Four of the torpedo boats which will comprise the torpedo flotilla off Newport this summer sailed from Norfolk for that port esterday. They are the Decatur, Thornton, Shubrick and Stockton. The torpedo boats Bagley, Barney and Biddle, which have also been fitted out at the Norfolk yard, will probably follow the first division today. It is probable that when Secretary Moody and his guests who are to witness some of the evolutions of the North Atlantic squadron from the Dolphin join the fleet a special program will be arranged by Rear Admiral Higginson in which the torpedo flotilla will have a part. It may be that an attack upon the heavy vessels by the torpedo fleet will be arranged, but the details are yet to be worked out by the admiral in command of the squadron. Until further orders the headquarters of the North Atlantic squadron will be at Newport, to which place all mail for that squadron should be directed.

The cruiser Montgomery, which was placed in commission at the New York navy yard yesterday, will be attached to the North At-lantic squadron and will be one of the "enemy's" ships, which will attempt to elude the defending squadron and attack one of the coast cities. The Scorpion will probably belong to the "enemy's" division. The other vessels of that division have not so far as known been decided upon.

Facilities for Correspondents. It is the intention of the Navy Department in the coming maneuvers to permit some of the press representatives to accompany the ship to sea, under conditions somewhat similar to these which obtained men; we have acted like men, and we during the Spanish war, and every proper should not go back like sheep, but there | facility is to be afforded the press generally, fense, which are to be carefully guarded from the opponents in the war game, will also be kept from them.

It is now explained that the original ement that the press was to be treated in the maneuvers as the "enemy" was a mere joke and was not intended to be taken seriously. On the contrary, the press will be expected to co-operate with the umpires in showing the success or failure of the various maneuvers. The newspaper men wil e given good points of observation and all necessary information at the proper time but naturally every effort will be used t prevent the escape in advance of details of the proposed movements of the attacking as such knowledge by the defending squadron would upset the entire scheme. Battle Ship Massachusetts Sails. NEW YORK, July 16.-The United States

battle ship Massachusetts sailed today to join the North Atlantic squadron on its in effect the one given to President Curran summer practice cruise. The squadron by the state board of arbitration earlier is to meet at Wood's Hole, off the England coast. The battle ships Alabama and Kearsarge left here for the rendezvous last night. The cruiser Olym-pia, after attending the dedication of the Stony Point battlefield, state reservation a Stony Point, on the Hudson, today, will also join the fleet.

GETTING READY FOR THE COM- SECRETARY CORTELYOU AGAIN

AT HIS DESK.

He Will Remain Here for Some Days Settling Up Accounts of President McKinley's Physicians.

Secretary Cortelyou was at his desk in the temporary White House today, having reached Washington from Oyster Bay last night. Mr. Cortelyou will remain here several days disposing of some matters. Then he will take his family away for a vaca-Block Island to fit the squadron for the tion and will not return to Oyster Bay for a month. The vacation will be the first of any length Mr. Cortelyou has had in many years. President Roosevelt has greatly appreciated Mr. Cortelyou's faithful, intelligent and hard work since the new administration came into power, and has insisted on Mr. Cortelyou taking as long a rest as > Mr. Cortelyou's principal business in returning to Washington is to submit to Secretary Shaw a schedule of payments to made on account of the death of President McKinley. Congress made an appro-priation to pay all the expenses incurred at that time, and to Mr. Corteiyou was left the adjustment of the accounts. The bulk of the appropriation will go to the physi-cians. Seven noted physicians were con-nected with the case and a number of others were called in consultation. Secre tary Cortelyou will submit his audit of the accounts to Secretary Shaw within a few days, and the treasury will issue checks. Secretary Cortelyou has a good deal of work to do in connection with the repairs to the White House and the erection of the new office building for the President. Mr. Cortelyou had a conference with Architect McKim coming over on the train from New York last night, and they went over a number of details connected with both buildings. It is the intention of the con-tractors to complete the office building for the President by October 1. The foundations have gone up rapidly, and Mr. Cortelyou believes the building can be finished by that time if the contractors continue work at the rate they are now going.

The President's Two Trips. Secretary Cortelyou has completed the itinerary of the two important trips to be made by President Roosevelt-to the New England states in August and to the northwest in September. Many of the details are yet to be worked out, especially arrangements with local committees as to the programs of entertainment, etc. The President will leave Oyster Bay August 22 on his New England trip and will visit all of the New England states on that journey. Probably his faithest point north will be the home of Representative Littlefield at Rockland, Me. That was one of the first visits the President promised to make in declared, "and the men from my state are connection with this trip. He will be the guest of Mr. Littlefield at Rockland. The will remain at his home putil the 19th of September, when he will leave on his northwest trip, a journey that promises to be extremely important. This trip will last two weeks and four days and will take in many places in the northwest. The President will stop first at Cincinnati on his way out, and then his next most important stop will be Detroit, to which place he goes to attend the annual convention of the Spanish War Veterans on September 22. Directly from Detroit the President goes back to Indianapolis to attend the meeting in that city of the other organization of the Spanish War Veterans. This Detroit. It is the earnest desire of the President and of other prominent men to see both of the Spanish war organizations consolidated under one name, and it is hoped that the presence of the President and his earnest hope for an amalgamation will bring about the results desired. Representative Dick and others who belong to one or both of the organizations are working to secure consolidation. The simultaneous meeting of the two bodies is with the object of trying to get an agreement. President Roosevelt has not decided upon the date of his southwestern trip, the one which will take him into Texas, and there is some doubt as to exactly when this will October was the month first planned, but Secretary Cortelyou has not yet begun any arrangements in this direc-

WEST AFRICAN TRADE.

Consul Berliner Believes That the Field is Promising.

United States Consul Berliner at Teneriffe Canary Islands, reports to the State De partment that there is a fine opening for American merchants on the west coast of Africa, "In spite of the keen competition for foreign trade," says the consul, "I feel sure that few Americans give a thought to the west coast of Africa, and yet recent trade statistics show that the field is promising, as it is comparatively new. Compe tition is less severe than in many other parts of the world, and the commerce is increasing by leaps and bounds.

"Business can be developed in this part of the world by the establishment of a reg-ular line of steamers between the United States and the west coast of Africa via the Canary Islands, and I have no doubt that money invested in this way would give good returns. If a bi-monthly or monthly line were inaugurated I feel confident that the vessels would receive full cargoes outward and a considerable freight homeward. They would further receive compensation for the carriage of mails. The passenger traffic would also be considerable. The ports of the Canary Islands are free."

Government Receipts.

This order was dictated by Mayor Ames, notwithstanding the decree of court which removed Fitchette from of fice as a result of his sentence for bribe taking. The convicted captain is now out on bond, pending appeal proceedings. The from the force as a result of the current municipal scandal is John Kong, on whose testimony Fitchette was convicted. The police officials are now wrangling among hemselves. Charges of disorderly conduct have been preferred against Fitchette for his recent individual raid of the down-town resorts. The President Issues a Stringent Order clad order to prevent the continuation of what has grown up to be a serious matter in connection with the discharge of enlisted men of the navy before the expiration of their terms of enlistment. For a number of years through political influence and upon the appeals of parents or dependant relatives, men who had enlisted in the navy and grown tired of the service, procured their discharge. The percentage of discharges on this account ran in some cases over 50 per cent of the total. During the last month about 35 per cent of the discharges were for causes other than those due to expiration of enlistment term. When this condition of affairs was presented to the President, upon the recommendation of the department he issued the following order:

"No enlisted person in the naval service of the United States shall be discharged therefrom prior to the completion of term of enlistment, except for one of the physical or mental disability or unfitness In every case the recommendation for such discharge must be made by the commanding officer of the vessel on which the man may be serving.
